

Johnny Appleseed Facts

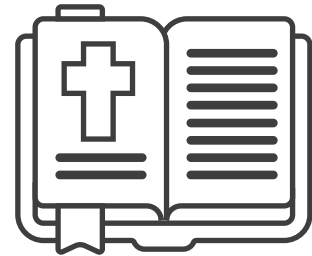

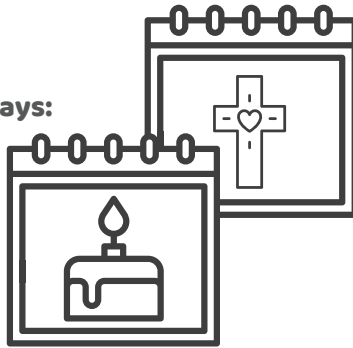

10 interesting Johnny Appleseed Facts

Johnny Appleseed's real name is John Chapman

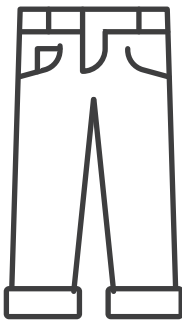

Johnny was born in September 1774, in Leominster, Massachusetts, United States.

We celebrate two Johnny Appleseed Days: Sept 26th, which is his birthday, and March 11, his death.

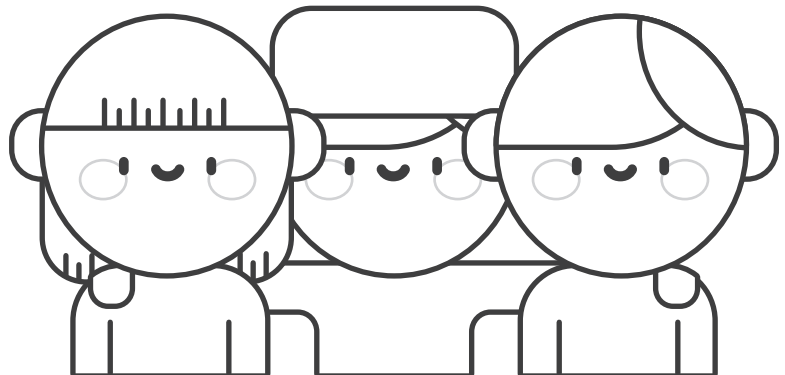

Johnny was a missionary, and his favorite book was the Bible.

Johnny was wealthy, but he didn't like to flaunt it. Instead, he chose to dress modestly and even wore the same pants all year round.

He never married, but he wasn't a lonely man: he had friends everywhere across America!.

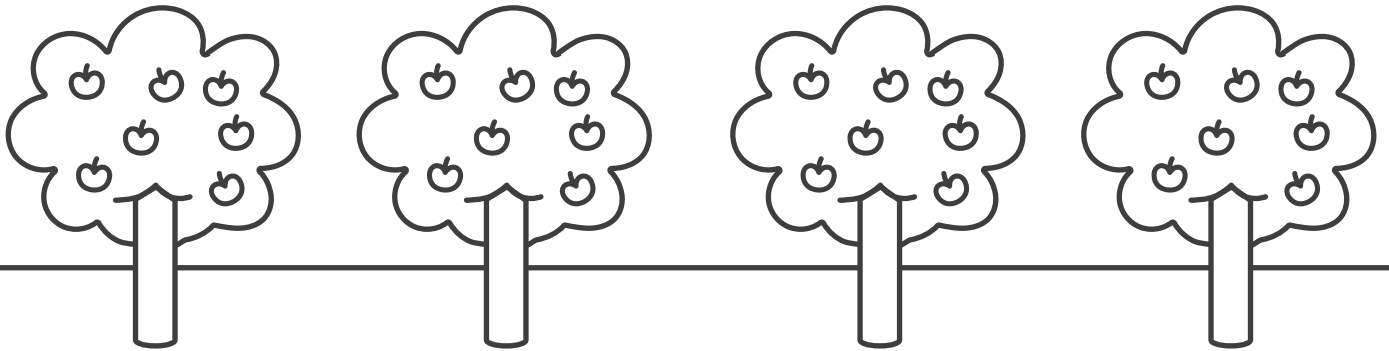

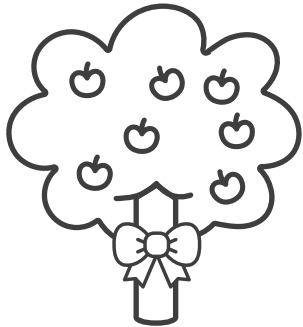

Johnny Appleseed Facts

10 interesting Johnny Appleseed Facts

He didn't plant seeds in random places; actually, he carefully planned, bought land, and cared for the trees he planted.

He was so kind, that sometimes he gave away his trees to people who couldn't afford them.

He was a vegetarian!
He loved animals so much and even rescued a wolf that he found in a trap.

