

Butterfly Facts

10+ Fun Facts about butterflies!

A butterfly is an insect.

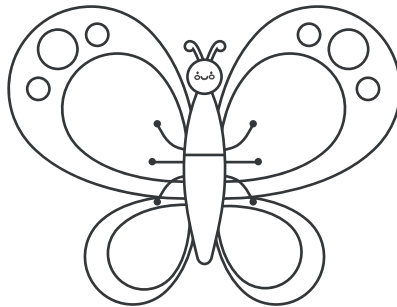

Butterflies only live for an average of a few weeks

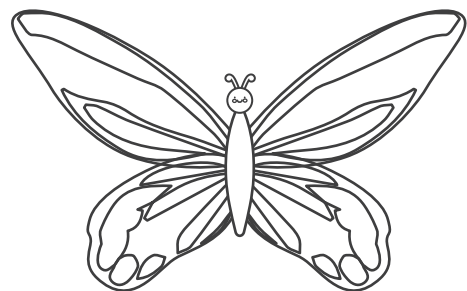

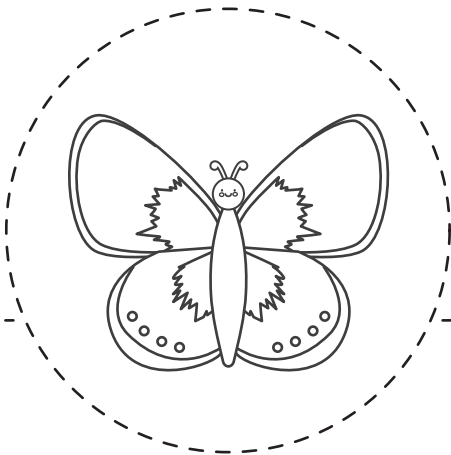

Butterflies taste with their feet!

Butterflies have four wings, three body parts, and six legs.

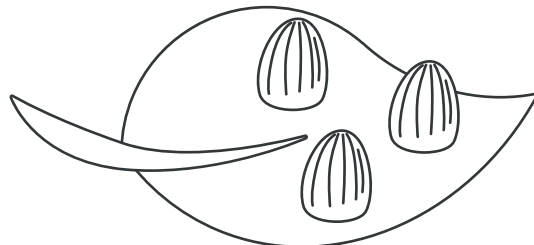

The smallest butterfly is the Western Blue Pygmy, which is only 0,7 inches across

The largest butterfly in the world is the female Queen Alexandra's birdwing, with a wingspan of over 9,8 inches!

A caterpillar hatches from a butterfly egg.

Butterfly Facts

10+ Fun Facts about butterflies!

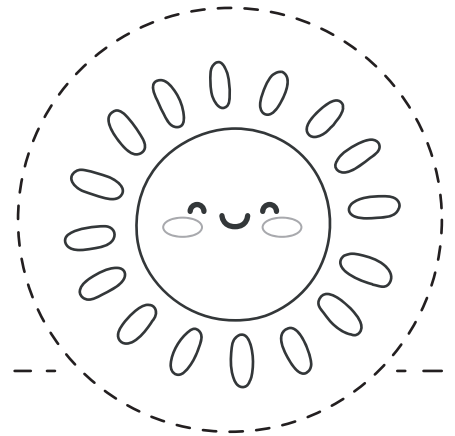

The caterpillar makes a chrysalis.

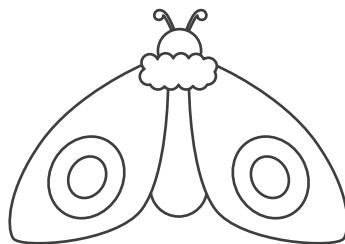

The caterpillar becomes a butterfly.

Butterflies need heat to be able to move.

The difference between a cocoon and a chrysalis is in the type of bug hatched from it. A cocoon turns into a moth, while a chrysalis turns a butterfly.

There are between 15,000 and 20,000 different kinds, and they can be found on every continent – except the Antarctic!

